A Message from the Executive Director of the Melbourne Prize Trust

The Melbourne Prize Trust offers the Melbourne Prize for Literature 2012, Best Writing Award 2012 and Civic Choice Award 2012 as one of the most valuable literary awards in Australia.

This document provides details of the prize and awards, general entry information, key dates and the entry form to be used for making an application. This year a residency at The University of Melbourne will be offered along with Qantas international air travel, provided to the recipient of the Best Writing Award.

To showcase the work of the finalists and enable the public to engage with the abundant literary talent in Victoria, the finalists work will be exhibited at Federation Square between 5 and 19 November 2012. The public will have an opportunity to vote for their favourite finalist to win the $5,000 Civic Choice Award 2012 both online and in the free catalogue.

In 2008, Melbourne was designated by UNESCO as an international City of Literature. The designation recognises the importance of literature to the city and the state and the central role that writers have played, and continue to play, in the cultural life of our community.

The Melbourne Prize for Literature 2012 and associated awards support Melbourne's status as a UNESCO City of Literature, recognising and rewarding writing talent in our state. We are proud to have the Victorian Government as a partner through its City of Literature initiative.

With the support of the City of Melbourne and our partners and patrons this year, we look forward to providing opportunities for writers and demonstrating the importance of literature in a vibrant and creative community. The Trust is pleased to recognise 2012 as the National Year of Reading.

We would like to thank the literary sector and the many organisations, publications and websites that are immensely supportive in raising awareness of our 2012 program.

Please visit our website at melbourneprize.org for a copy of this entry form or for further information, or call (03) 9696 4410.

Yours sincerely,

Simon Warrender Executive Director & Founder

About the Melbourne Prize Trust and Annual Melbourne Prize

Launched in 2004, the Melbourne Prize Trust recognises and rewards excellence and talent, inspires creative development and enriches public life. The Trust achieves these aims by running the annual Melbourne Prize, which is funded by a collaboration of partnerships and patrons. The Trust is an Income Exempt Charity with Deductible Gift Recipient status.

The annual Melbourne Prize is one of the most valuable creative development initiatives of its kind in Australia. It runs on a three-year cycle and rewards sculptors, writers and musicians in turn. The current cycle is:

- / Melbourne Prize for Urban Sculpture (2011)
- / Melbourne Prize for Literature (2012)
- / Melbourne Prize for Music (2013)

The Prize is unique, celebrating artistic excellence under the banner of Melbourne.

The major event of the annual Melbourne Prize is the free two-week public exhibition of finalists' work and the prize announcement held each November at Federation Square. The public have the ability to vote for a finalist to win the Civic Choice Award. The exhibition increases the public's exposure and access to the creativity of our community and enhances Melbourne's reputation as a cultural capital.

The origins of the Trust date back to the establishment of the children's garden precinct at the Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne and the commissioning of The Magic Pudding sculpture in 2000.

Proceeds from the sale of limited edition miniatures of this landmark sculpture contribute to the Trust. Please contact the Melbourne Prize Trust regarding the miniatures.
