A MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE MELBOURNE PRIZE TRUST

The Melbourne Prize Trust is delighted to offer the Melbourne Prize for Literature 2018 and Awards, which includes the Melbourne Prize for Literature 2018, the Best Writing Award 2018, the new Readings Residency Award 2018 and the Civic Choice Award 2018.

These Entry Guidelines provide all the information required for entry in the three available categories, plus key dates and general entry information.

For the new online Entry Form, please visit melbourneprize.org

To showcase the work of the finalists and enable the public to engage with the abundant literary talent in Victoria, the finalists in each category will be exhibited at Federation Square between 12 and 26 November 2018.

Following the announcement of the finalists, the public will have an opportunity to vote online at melbourneprize.org for their favourite one to win the $4,000 Civic Choice Award 2018.

We are proud to have the Victorian Government, through Creative Victoria, and the City of Melbourne as Government Partners.

Melbourne is a UNESCO international City of Literature, which recognises the importance of literature to the city and state, and the central role that writers have played, and continue to play, in the cultural life of our community.

The Melbourne Prize for Literature 2018 and Awards proudly support Melbourne's status as a UNESCO City of Literature.

The program positions Melbourne as offering some of the most valuable literary prizes of their kind in Australia. The Trust looks forward to demonstrating the importance of literature in our community and providing opportunities for writers.

The Melbourne Prize for Literature 2018 and Awards are made possible through the generous support of our partners and patrons – thank you one and all for the valuable community investment in literature.

Thank you to the literary sector and the many organisations, publications and websites who have generously helped the Trust raise awareness of our 2018 program.

Residency at the Norman Redpath Studio, Carlton supported by the University of Melbourne Faculty of Fine Arts and Music.

Affiliation with the School of Culture and Communications in the Faculty of Arts during the residency.

$2,500 Qantas airfare voucher

The Readings Residency Award 2018 is for an early career Victorian published author across all writing genres, including fiction, non-fiction, essays, poetry, plays, and screenplays.

The recipient of this Award will also receive Qantas International air travel to the value of $2,500 (including GST).

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW TO ENTER THIS AWARD.

Authors can apply for this Award in their own right or be nominated by publishers, agents or private individuals.

Entrants must be commercially published authors.

Plays and screenplays entered must be commercially produced.

A shortlist of up to three (3) finalists will be announced on 12 September 2018 at melbourneprize.org and displayed at the Federation Square finalist exhibition.

The recipient will be announced to the media and on the Prize website on 11 November 2018.

The residency at the Norma Redpath Studio in Carlton will be flexible to meet the needs of the winner.

The Award will enable the recipient to immerse themselves in their literary pursuits in a unique environment in the heart of Melbourne's creative community and to travel.

Norma Redpath died in 2013. Some years prior to her death Norma came to an arrangement with the University of Melbourne to occupy and renovate a blue stone cottage owned by the University that was adjacent to her studio in Carlton.

The studio had belonged to her partner, the late Professor Sydney Rubbo. Under the terms of the arrangement the University became the owner of both properties on Norma's death.

The University of Melbourne assumed management of the studio after her death and since then it has been made available to artists, writers and academics.

The timing, length and details of the residency will be negotiated between the recipient and the University of Melbourne following the announcement.

The PDF file size of the required support material and character count for each field are provided throughout the Entry Form.

ENTRY MATERIAL REQUIRED FOR THIS CATEGORY

Entrants will be prompted to provide the following support material in the online Entry Form:

- / A resume, including a summary of the author's published work.
- / A proposal of how the Award funds, travel voucher and residency will be used to benefit the career of the author.

ABOUT THE MELBOURNE PRIZE TRUST AND ANNUAL MELBOURNE PRIZE

Launched in 2004, the Melbourne Prize Trust recognises and rewards excellence and talent, inspires creative development and enriches public life.

The Trust achieves these aims by running the annual Melbourne Prize, which is funded by a collaboration of partnerships and patrons.

To date, approximately $1.5 million has been made available to Victorian artists via the annual Melbourne Prize, plus exhibitions, residencies and international travel. The Trust is an Income Exempt Charity with Deductible Gift Recipient status.

The annual Melbourne Prize is one of the most valuable creative development initiatives of its kind in Australia. It runs on a three-year cycle and rewards sculptors, writers and musicians in turn.

The current cycle is:

Melbourne Prize for Music (2016)

Melbourne Prize for Urban Sculpture (2017)

Melbourne Prize for Literature (2018)

The annual Melbourne Prize is unique, celebrating artistic excellence under the banner of Melbourne.

The major event of the annual Melbourne Prize is the free two-week public exhibition of finalists work and the prize announcement held each November at Federation Square. The public has the ability to vote for a finalist to win the Civic Choice Award.

The exhibition increases the public's exposure and access to the creativity of our community and enhances Melbourne's reputation as a cultural capital.

The origins of the Trust date back to the establishment of the children's garden precinct at the Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne and the commissioning of The Magic Pudding sculpture in 2000. Proceeds from the sale of limited edition miniatures of this landmark sculpture contribute to the Trust.
